

$$\begin{array}{c}
 \text{Diagram 1: A hexagon with vertices labeled } p, q, r, s, t, u \text{ clockwise from top-left. Internal lines connect } p \text{ to } t, q \text{ to } u, \text{ and } r \text{ to } s. \text{ An external line } a\alpha \text{ enters from the left at vertex } p, \text{ and an external line } a'\alpha' \text{ exits to the right at vertex } t. \\
 \\
 \text{Diagram 2: A horizontal line with } a\alpha \text{ on the left and } a'\alpha' \text{ on the right.} \\
 \\
 \text{Diagram 3: A hexagon with vertices labeled } p, q, r, s, t, u \text{ clockwise from top-left. Internal lines connect } p \text{ to } t, q \text{ to } u, \text{ and } r \text{ to } s. \text{ An additional internal line connects } p \text{ to } u, \text{ passing through a central vertex labeled } a.
 \end{array}$$